Solution history?

original solution: normal charger cable kept in koss earphone satchel current solution: Kero Nomad Cable

At what cost?

bought Kero Nomad Cables for $20 on Amazon.

discovered Nomad Cable on MacRumors.

Reason for purchase?

uses phone as hotspot in workspace, the workspace wifi is too slow mid-day when the workspace is busy with patrons - so, the phone is on, as a data link, most of the day.

Marketing Venue?

use same raffle trick as Nomad Cable on MacRumors on frequented web sites.

Word of Mouth?
